

September Meeting

In a change to the planned programme, passages from Ken Bullock's book about Ainsworth, from 1917 through to 1970, were read out to the group. The stories he had recorded there were further enhanced by contributions from those present, who added texture and detail.