

As the nights were drawing in, our October history walk was replaced by a visit to the Unitarian Chapel, where Steve Horrocks kindly gave the 30 people attending a talk on the history of the chapel, followed by an opportunity to walk around –looking especially at the pulpit, boxed pews and organ - and also to see some of the chapel's books and documents.

Organ on Balcony

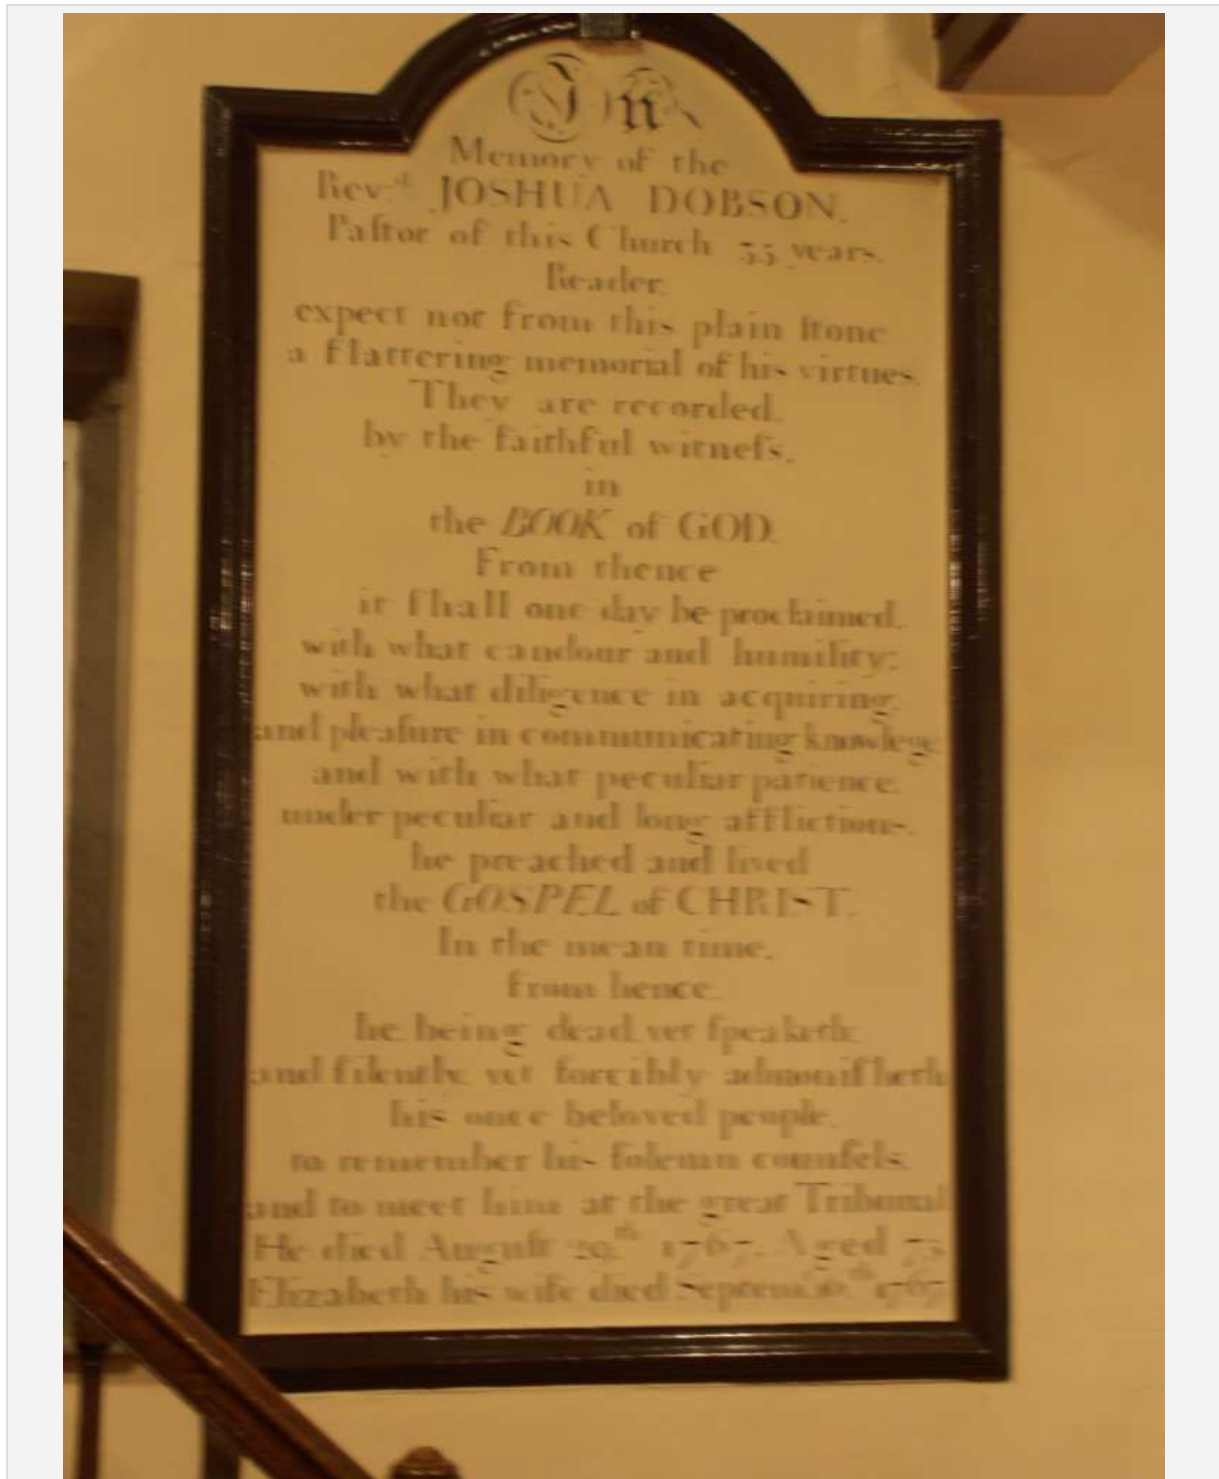

box pews on balcony

Pulpit (Bible can be seen bottom left)

box pews

Plaque