

October Meeting

As well as viewing some photos from the last meeting, we looked a little further afield this time – at Radcliffe and the surrounding area. We saw a variety of photos of the town centre (from 1900 to the 1980's); the canals and bridges around Radcliffe; and of transport – from horse and cart, to buses and charabancs. Many of the photos brought back memories and interesting anecdotes from those present.

